Innovative Connectivity Solutions for Aviagen

Partnering for High-Performance

Aviagen, a global leader in poultry breeding, has been dedicated to providing top-quality breeding stock to customers around the world for over 90 years. To support their growing needs and ensure seamless operations, Aviagen aimed to upgrade their IT infrastructure, enhancing connectivity across local facilities.

Recognizing the increasing demands of modern business, they sought a partner to provide robust networking and internet services for optimized operations and consistent, high-performance standards.

Seamless Connectivity

Aviagen partnered with Enterprise Outsourcing to enhance their network infrastructure and overall efficiency. Enterprise Outsourcing began with a comprehensive assessment of Aviagen's existing network, identifying areas for improvement.

Based on these insights, they designed a tailored solution, including hardware upgrades, advanced routing and switching technologies and redundancy measures to prevent downtime. High-speed internet services were implemented, ensuring reliable and fast connectivity for seamless communication, quicker data transfer and improved access to cloud-based applications.

"Enterprise Outsourcing transformed Aviagen's network infrastructure with tailored upgrades and robust security, ensuring seamless connectivity and enhanced operational efficiency."

To protect sensitive data and maintain compliance, robust security measures such as firewalls, intrusion detection systems and regular security audits were established. Additionally, Enterprise Outsourcing provided round-the-clock support and maintenance, including continuous network monitoring, prompt issue resolution and regular updates. These efforts resulted in a comprehensive, reliable network solution that bolstered Aviagen's operational excellence.

Future-Proofing Aviagen

The partnership between Aviagen and Enterprise Outsourcing significantly enhanced Aviagen's network performance and overall operations. The upgraded infrastructure reduced downtime and improved reliability across all facilities, ensuring smooth operations.

High-speed internet services enabled faster data transfer and better communication between locations, enhancing efficiency and decision-making. Advanced security measures protected sensitive data, providing peace of mind. The tailored network solution also allowed for easy scalability, supporting Aviagen's growth without network limitations.

"The partnership between Aviagen and Enterprise Outsourcing optimized network performance, boosted efficiency and ensured secure, scalable operations for future growth."
